Chaya Toby is smart, hardworking and capable. She enjoys a good discussion and loves learning new things whether it's history, Chassidus, art or politics. She expresses her creativity through baking and photography. She loves the outdoors and traveling and is always up for an adventure.

Chaya Toby is grounded, open minded and a free thinker yet she strongly values Yiddishkeit and Chassidishkeit. She is a caring, loyal friend who will not hesitate to go the extra mile to help someone out. Chaya Toby is passionate about education and loves her current position as a teacher at B'nos Chomesh Academy.

Chaya Toby was born and raised in Crown Heights, New York. She is one of 10 siblings and grew up in a warm, loving and very open home. She is looking to create a similar home in the future with a like-minded man who is mature, intelligent, hardworking, worldly and passionate about Chabad and Yiddishkeit.
