A Very close friend

Mendel is a wonderful bochur who has brought much goodness to our family and others. His mentchlichkeit and sweet personality is recognized and cherished by all who know him. Mendel is an ועושה אומר. What he sets his mind to do, gets done, even at personal inconvenience. No one will know that he has been inconvenienced. His references for friends have provided many a worried mother information about the potential date for their daughter. His insights and sensitivity are beautiful to watch. He knows how to help around the house, and is neat and tucked in.

Mendel keeps seder and dovens with a minyan early in the morning after learning חסידות with a חברותא. He has several of them, even with being in school. He is in Touro pursuing sciences, with the hope of continuing on to professional school when he completes his undergrad work. He has gone this route because he wants to be responsible for his family in terms of פרנסה. He maintains his מנינים and learning schedule despite the demands of school. He is a frum boy and is looking for a girl who is primarily צנוע in her ways. He wants someone with an upbeat personality who will share his passion for תורה and community responsibility. He is able to manage a professional life in line with his frumkeit and chassidishkeit in tact as that is the kind of role model he sees and lives with in his home, as his father is an MD.
