

BS"D

SM

Age 32. Height 5'7"

S is committed, creative, and hardworking in whatever she undertakes. She is a very loyal daughter, sister, and friend. She has a deep love for Yiddishkeit, while thinking "out of the box", and combines secular interests in her activities.

She went to Beis Rivkah, and to Seminar Chaya Mushka (Rabbi Rosenfeld) in Tsfat, and then worked on Shlichus for a year in Austin, Texas. She has taught very successfully with students of different ages, and currently directs the lower grades at the Luria Academy (Montessori) in Brooklyn, having taught both Limudei Kodesh and secular studies. She has a very keen and compassionate insight into her students and their needs.

S is sensitive, warm, and intelligent, a combination of serious and lively. Children very much enjoy her company. She is a very concerned, and giving, making it her business to collect and distribute Tzedaka for specific individuals in time of need. She is a very good homemaker. Her hobbies include travel, hiking , music , and photography.

Her father is American, a BT for over forty years, he worked in engineering and teaching secular studies in Yeshiva. Her mother is from England, from a modern orthodox family, and is a teacher.

S is looking for an emotionally mature husband, who is kind, intelligent, responsible and communicative, with a sense of humor. She wants someone who is comfortable and honest in his Yiddishkeit, open-minded, and able to relate to her diverse interests.

Contact: Esther Malasky elm671@yahoo.com