

Yudy Cohen

Height 5' 4"

Age 57

What defines him?

Try to do the right thing. Like people, like to visit my family especially my children and grandchildren. I enjoy swimming, bike riding and table tennis. I am on the quiet side. I love the beach. On the other hand, I don't like to waste time.

What is unique about him?

I give a shiur in Chassidus. Like to fix things around the house.

What are they seeking in a mate?

Kindness should be the most outstanding quality, I seek out a companion with someone that I have something in common with. Someone that is relatively speaking financially stable and is willing to live in Baltimore. Intelligent, learned in Torah.Flexible.No baggage. Sense of humor a must.

What type of home do they envision for themselves in the future?

Peaceful with guests on Shabbos.
